Reflections on Water

_____

I give my permission for this story to be used in the Reflections on Water project

Signed_____ date_____

Check one ___ You may print my name. OR ___ I wish my story to be anonymous.

Instructions:

Record your reflections, significant experiences, and memories of water. All languages welcome. You may include also pictures, individual words phrases, or poems. Submit as many different short true stories as you like.

With your permission, completed Reflections will become part of the Reflections on Water archive available on line at www.moonfestival.net, and some words and images will also be transferred onto Lanterns that will be displayed floating on water at the Renfrew Ravine Moon Festival.

Completed stories may be dropped off at Renfrew Library, Renfrew Community Centre, or Collingwood Neighbourhood House

For more information, contact Carmen Rosen stillmooncarmen@shaw.ca